Time for a Change

This is The Prowers Journal's final Yardsale insert of the season. School has started on the High Plains and the High School Sports season is gearing up in earnest, as well as a host of activities at all the area high schools. The Prowers Journal will now provide you with local school coverage, from scores and sports schedules, to information about DECA, FFA, school plays, weekly menus and other events. You'll be able to read about those activities online and in our Wednesday inserts, and we invite you to share the information with your friends. We'd also like to take this opportunity to offer thanks to the folks from Thriftway in Lamar for sponsoring our Yardsale insert through the summer season. Be sure to shop Thriftway for quality foods all year long.

Bob Orndorff came to work for DeLoach's Culligan in 1971 starting out as a Route man, delivering salt and tanks. Bob loved the contact with all the people he encountered during his day. He then moved into the service department in 1980. His duties included installing new equipment and taking care of existing units. In 1997 Bob moved into the shop. Bob dedicated 41 years to DeLoach's Water Conditioning, Inc. We will definitely miss him. He and his wife Lila moved to Chickasha, Oklahoma to be closer to family. Thank you, Bob, for your valuable contribution to our Company throughout your years of service. We offer you good wishes for health and happiness in your well-earned retirement. Jim, Darren, LaRoyce, CJ, Tim and Brad

LIBRARY OFFERS COMPUTER TUTORING

The Lamar Public Library, through the use of its new Mobile Computer Center, is pleased to announce that it will be offering one-on-one tutoring for computer basics. Starting Friday, July 29, the Library will offer tutoring sessions every Tuesday and Friday afternoon. Patrons can sign up for a fifteen minute session between 1:00-4:00 pm. Please stop in to sign up or call the Library at 336-4632. One-on-one tutoring is the first step in getting the Mobile Computer Center up and running. The Library will soon be offering presentations and hands-on classes for computer basics. For example, those seeking new computer skills, doing online research or looking to take part in social media can learn here. For more information, contact Kristin Lubbers at 336-4632 or by emailing kristin.lubbers@ci.lamar.co.us.
