Candy Cane Festival is this Weekend

Lamar shoppers are planning on their local version of Black Friday with the annual Candy Cane Festival, set for this Friday and Saturday. Participating merchants are offering discounts and special savings to area shoppers and various forms of holiday entertainment have been prepared, including the annual Parade of Lights starting at 6:30pm this Friday evening, followed by Santa's appearance in the Enchanted Forest.

Friday shopping hours will run from 4pm to 8pm and Saturday's shopping events will run from 10am to 4pm. Holiday specials will be available at The Lassie, Country Treasures, Flower Boutique, Carla's Dress Shop, Bettian's, J & N Shoes, Crafter's Corner, Main Street Shoppe, and Country Home Furnishings.

Saturday specials include Santa at the downtown PCDI Office from 10 to Noon with free pictures and cookies; Santa travels to Walmart from Noon to 2pm and you can enter to win a bicycle; kids can learn holiday crafting from Crafter's Corner from 10am to 3pm, there's a free movie matinee for kids at 2pm, at the Lamar Theater sponsored by the Lamar Chamber and LPI; the Main Street Shoppe is giving away free hot chocolate and choo-choo train rides downtown will run from 11am to 1pm from the locomotive at the Lamar Chamber. The Lamar High School Notables will be caroling downtown through the day. By Russ Baldwin

Lodging Tax Panel Applications

If your organization plans events that bring tourists and visitors to Prowers County, you may be eligible for funding from the Prowers County Lodging Tax Panel.

The panel allocates funding to help organizations develop marketing plans to publicize their activities. Funding is generated from a lodging tax levied for motels, hotels and bed and breakfast homes in Prowers County. Your group may qualify for marketing funds.

Contact Carla Scranton at 719-336-2384, the Prowers County Development Incorporated offices in Lamar for more information and an application form. The Lodging Tax Panel meets the third Tuesday of every month at 4pm at the PCDI offices at Main and East Olive Streets in Lamar.
