At the Library

Help with your computer, Skype, Nook, and Kindle is available at the Lamar Public Library. There is no cost to you. Call the Library at 336-4632 and ask for Kristen. She can include you in a group class, or give private tutoring.

Kids! Do you need help with a homework question? Log on to Ask-Colorado.org and be connected with a librarian who can research and get answers to your questions. (Parents! it works for your questions too.)

The Lamar Public Library has cleared some space and is now accepting donations for the Friends of the Lamar Public Library annual book sale. Bring your donations to the library during regular business hours. The sale will start on April 1 for members only, and open to the public on Monday April 2 through Wednesday, April 4. The 4th will be bag day - fill a bag of books for $2.

Memberships may be purchased at the library or at the sale. All proceeds go to fund library events, including the Summer Reading Program.

Library Book Sale

Book sale starts April 1 for members of the "friends of the Lamar public library" sale opens to the public on Monday, April 2 through April 3.

Have books to donate? Bring them to the library now. Have too many to haul yourself? Call the library and arrangements can be made to have them picked up.

Control Debris Burn Set for Thursday

The Lamar Public Works Department and the Lamar Fire Department will be burning the Willow Creek Drainage from the area near the Lamar Swimming Pool east towards East Parmenter and then out toward Clay Creek to the east of Lamar. Weather permitting, the burn will begin at approximately 7:30 a.m. on Thursday March 15th and may continue for several days. This prescribed burn is being conducted to remove as much debris as possible from the drainage area prior to the rains of spring and early summer. Please contact Public Works Director Pat Mason at 336-2002 or Fire Chief Marshall Cook at 336-4321 if you have questions or concerns.
