DivorceCare

Lamar Christian Church is providing the very helpful DivorceCare program designed to aid those who are traveling the rough road of divorce. It does not matter whether your divorce is recent or occurred many years ago, the stigma and pain of divorce affects so many of us. Yet few people healthily deal with all of the fallout.

DivorceCare takes each participant on a Bible-based journey through divorce, helping us deal with anger, guilt, pain, dating and much more over ten weeks. The classes are DVD-based, with many highly qualified experts leading the studies. We also include discussion and other teaching methods.

The cost is $15 to cover the cost of the workbook. The classes are held on Wednesday nights from 6:30-7:30pm in the library of Lamar Christian Church. Please call the church at 336-5343 to sign up or go online at lamarchristian.com. Kay Arends will lead this study.

Lamar FFA Participates in District VII Speech Contest

Congratulations to Jolynn Rider of the Lamar FFA Chapter for receiving a "Gold" rating and placing 2nd in the Extemporaneous Public Speaking Contest! Rider will serve as the alternate for the State contest to be held in June.

On December 6th Colorado FFA District 7 held a Public Speaking Contest at the Lamar Community Building. District 7 consists of the Lamar, Wiley, Granada, Holly, Las Animas, and McClave FFA chapters.

At the contest there were two different types of speeches. One of which was the "Prepared" speeches, in which contestants may choose their own subjects to be presented. The speech must consist of a current subject related to agriculture. Each "Prepared" speech must be from six to a maximum of eight minutes. The second type of public speaking contest is an "Extemporaneous" speech in which contestants draw one sub-topic from the following categories: Agri-science and Technology, Agri-marketing and International Agricultural Relations, Food and Fiber Systems, and Urban Agriculture. Contestants are given thirty minutes to prepare a four to six minute speech on the topic they chose out of the four main categories. FFA members are then questioned and scored on their knowledge of the topic.

Lauren Tinnes also represented the Lamar FFA Chapter in the "Extemporaneous" contest. Congratulations to Tinnes for placing in the silver category!

Kennadee Oppliger represented the Lamar FFA Chapter and presented "The Agriculture Industry and the Humane Society of the United States" in the "Prepared Speech" contest.

Congratulations to these young ladies on their accomplishments and development of their public speaking skills!

Financial Peace University

Lamar Christian Church is going to offer another nine week series of practical financial aid for those struggling with finances called Financial Peace University. This Bible-based program can lead any person or family to financial freedom in a national average of eight years to becoming debt free!

Many people are familiar with Dave Ramsey, nationally syndicated financial advisor, who is on radio and television every week. Dave is the founder of FPU and leads the DVD lessons in an entertaining and challenging way.

The materials include work book, Dave's Complete Guide to Money, CD audio library, planning folder, and access to a host of online help from daveramsey.com. The lessons involve 50 minutes of video lesson, followed by 30 minutes of discussion and application. The study leader is Ian Blacker.

The ten classes start on January the 8th at 6:30-8pm in room 12 at Lamar Christian Church with an introductory class, then nine weeks of instruction. The cost is $90 per person/family for materials, payable over three months if necessary. Call 336-5343 for more information or go online at lamarchristian.com or daveramsey.com.
