Lamar Utility Board Holds Brief Meeting

Just a handful of items were listed for the Lamar Utility Board's bi-monthly meeting this past Tuesday, April 15. Light Plant Superintendent Houssin Hourieh noted that All Rite Paving & Redi Mix has begun a second gravel pit west of Hasty at the intersection of CRJJ and CR22 in Bent County. Hourieh noted the operation is near the Light Plant's 69KV line west. An agreement drawn up by attorney John Lefferdink is similar to one developed for another gravel pit in November 2012. The addendum for the second pit was approved by both parties and protects the Light Plant's interest in the event of any damages to the transmission line by All Rite Paving.

The Light Plant wind turbines are performing well into the first quarter of the year. Hourieh informed board members the three units have generated 3075 MWH of electricity, year to date and is about 8% higher than last year's production numbers. The turbines have an average capacity factor of 31.74%. Each turbine will be off line for two days in the near future for routine maintenance. The turbines were recently used by the Light Plant crew and Lamar Fire Department for three days of high rescue training.

A bid of $10,458 to Stuart Irby out of Denver was approved for the purchase of several Distribution Pole Mount Transformers. Purchase orders totaling $796,848.32 and assorted bills totaling $939,263.40 were approved.

Board members went into executive session to receive legal advice on questions related to an update on power supply contract extension negotiation; a report on multi-party mediation for the Lamar Repowering Project, to include attorney/client communication. The next Lamar Utility Board meeting is scheduled for April 29. By Russ Baldwin

Lamar Christian Church Annual Easter Worship Service at LHS

Lamar Christian Church is holding its annual Easter worship service at the Lamar High School auditorium at 10am on Sunday the 20th of April 2014.

The Worship service, led by our worship arts ministry team will combine both contemporary and tradition music, that will draw our focus to the great celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus, The Son of God from death to life. Easter is the climax of God's love story for mankind, when God demonstrates His power over sin and certainly death.

The message of God's love and grace is entitled, "Who are you going to follow?" This message will focus on the phenomenal sacrifice that both God and Jesus paid to demonstrate their love for each human being no matter who we are. The sermon will take us to Jerusalem of 2,000 years ago, and then to where we live today, to better understand God's sacrificial love.

Not only will we have a dynamic and deeply spiritual experience on Sunday the 20th for adults but also, the children's ministry staff has planned a great children's event, also starting at 10am in the gym. We are bringing in a puppet team from Parker, Colorado-"Wit and Folly", to provide a unique message for 5 year olds through 6th grade. The children's ministry will feature other activities for the children. We will have a fully staffed, secure nursery for baby through four years old.

The main hallway of the high school will support a number of ministry booths, that will feature various ministries of the congregation including children's, student ministry, young adult, women's, men's, seniors, worship arts, missions, adult, MOPS, and other ministries that are associated with Lamar Christian Church.

The auditorium holds 586 people, and we are anticipating a large crowd attending. WE want to remind everyone attending to not use the Life Center car park, but only the high school or street parking. We encourage everyone to plan to be at the high school by 9:45 in order to have room for parking, and a good seat.

We heartily encourage people to bring their friends, neighbors and workmates to the service. This is a service that will bring God's truth to everyone, no matter our background or life experiences. All are welcome.

Our guests do not need to contribute to the offering unless they want to, as it is designed for our members and regular attenders, but all believers are invited to participate in communion.

If you have any questions about the Easter service, please call 719-336-5343 during regular office hours with your questions. Other information is available on the church website - lamarchristian.com.
