Free Legal Clinic at Your Lamar Public Library

A free legal clinic for parties who have no attorney, will be featured from 3:00 PM - 6:00 PM on the FIRST MONDAY of each month at the Lamar Public Library at 102 E. Parmenter St., Lamar, CO 81052. By computer link, volunteer attorneys will answer questions, help fill out forms, and explain the process and procedure for all areas of civil litigation, including family law, property law, probate law, collections, appeals, landlord-tenant law, small claims, veterans issues, and civil protection orders. Walk-ins are welcome and everyone will be helped on a first-come, first-served basis. Upcoming dates are: October 6, November 3, and December 1.

Big Timbers "Antique Road Show" - Kind Of

Do you have a cool family heirloom or favorite piece in your collection you love to talk about? Then now's the time to call Chuck Bowen and ask for a slot in "Antique Road Show (And Tell)", which will be the program for the next General Meeting of the Prowers County Historical Society, 7:00 pm, October 16th, 2014 at Big Timbers Museum.

We probably can't tell you what your item is worth on the market, and you won't be on TV. But you WILL have a lot of fun sharing your story with a lot of other folks who love history. This event was one of the most popular presentations PCHS held last year, so we are bringing it around again. If you don't enjoy public speaking, you can just bring your rare piece and put it out for display during the meeting. Please call Chuck Bowen at 336-5082 for more information.

Lamar Chamber of Commerce Welcomes Two New Directors

Lamar, CO – The Lamar Chamber of Commerce would like to welcome two new Directors: Patricia Macias, Business Office Manager at Juniper Village at Lamar and Chris Frost, Editor of the Lamar Ledger. Both have agreed to finish out the 2014 calendar year serving our Chamber Membership and bringing their talents to the remaining events of the year.

Patricia Macias is a 20 year resident of Lamar and will bring her accounting and planning skills to the Board of Directors. Patricia states, "I am invested in this community and I want to become more involved in the community and its residents." We welcome Chris Frost back to our community after his hiatus as a journalist in California and we look forward to watching Frost put his reporting expertise to work keeping our community informed. Frost states, "My pledge is to continue my work to do everything possible to serve such a great community."

Planning is underway for several Lamar Chamber of Commerce upcoming events: Oktoberfest (October 4); Farm/City Banquet (November 15) featuring the entertainment talent of Baxter Black – tickets are on sale now; Parade of Lights (December 5); and, Holiday Basketball Tournament (December 18-20). The Chamber is also working on a revitalization project for the Enchanted Forest, starting a Member to Member Benefit program, sharing a new monthly Chamber Newsletter with our membership, and preparing for the 2015 elections.

The 2015 Elections for the Chamber will begin next month. "We need to fill four (4) open chairs with new directors and we are actively seeking area business leaders that are dedicated to keeping our Chamber of Commerce strong, active and innovative. Our directors serve a term of three (3) years and must be committed to serving our membership," states President, Lisa Thomas. "Patty and Chris will be a great asset to our team as we work hard over these final months of the year." Lisa Thomas, President, Lamar Chamber of Commerce
