Remembering the Flood of 65

The Prowers County Historical Society will host a meeting devoted to the Flood of 1965 that impacted portions of Prowers County, including Holly and Lamar. The meeting will be on Thursday, June 18 to coincide with the 50th anniversary of the flood.

Area residents are invited to share their experiences and the Historical Society plans to create a booklet featuring those accounts. Residents are urged to begin writing their accounts now and submit them to the Society during or before the June 18th meeting. Contact the Big Timbers Museum for more information at 336-2472 or email to: bigtimbers@prowerscounty.net.
